And then our good Lord opened my spiritual eye,
and showed me my soul in the midst of my heart.
The place which Jesus takes in our soul
he will nevermore vacate,
for in us is his home of homes
and his everlasting dwelling.

Showings, Chapter 68

“There can be no doubt that Julian is the greatest of the English mystics.”

Thomas Merton

Meet Julian of Norwich

Born: 1342
Occupation: anchoress, St. Julian's Church, Norwich, England
Name: Unknown
Education: Unknown
Date of Death: Unknown (c. 1416)
Achievements: First Woman to Write in the English Language; Mystic

In May 1373, when she was 30 years old and near death from a grave malady, the woman known as Julian experienced sixteen visions or “showings” of Christ’s passion and the nature of divine love. During this weekend together, we will explore and reflect on Julian’s themes of God’s compassion and love:

- our source of everlasting empowerment and nurturing through the Trinity
- our interconnectedness with all creation and our inseparable union with the divine
- God’s love and delight in us and his wish for our delight and love in him
- the assurance that all will be well, even in the face of difficulties and despair

Lynne Larson, M.A., discovered Julian of Norwich while on retreat over twenty years ago and ever since has looked to the Showings for spiritual nourishment. Dream interpretation has been her special interest for over thirty years, during which she has studied thousands of dreams. She teaches and conducts dream workshops and works with individuals privately. She also sponsors contemplative prayer retreats and is active in a Virginia Beach centering prayer group. Her website is thejoyofdreaming.com.

Phil Stone is an MBA and engineer who found his true calling promoting retreats and opportunities for spiritual growth. A graduate of The Shalem Institute’s Leading Contemplative Retreats Program, Phil is a contemplative prayer group and retreat leader. Phil is the creator of Findthedivine.com, an online directory of retreat centers.
